SPRINGSTON TROPHY - COMPETITION RULES

PREAMBLE

These rules do not cover all aspects of the Competition. Where there is a rule stated, this rule will be paramount. Where the rules are silent, reference should be made to the appropriate rule in the current NZPCA Horse Trials Teams Championship Rule Book or further, to the NZEF Rules for Horse Trials. Dates in brackets denote the year a rule change was agreed by delegates.

- 1.1. The aim is to provide a South Island competition on similar lines to the NZPC Horse Trial Team Championship, but catering for teams from Branches. (Definition: the term branch refers to the branches of a club, or to a club which has no branches)

2. THE FORM OF THE COMPETITION

- 2.1. The competition will take the form of a Horse Trial, comprising three tests, Dressage, Cross-Country and Show jumping, normally in that sequence.
- 2.2. The competition will provide a test requiring courage, determination and all round ability appropriate to age group of the classes and the fact that it is a Team Competition
- 2.3. A Wooden Spoon Competition, comprising of Dressage and Show jumping will be held for those teams eliminated in the Cross-country phase.

5. MARKING

- 5.1. The competition will be marked on a penalty basis in accordance with the NZPCA Teams Horse Trials Championship Rule Book and the winning team will be the team with the lowest score as follows.

- 5.2. In the case of a team of Four, the penalty scores in all three phases for ALL FOUR riders will be added together to give the team total.
- 5.3. In the case of a team of MORE THAN FOUR riders, the lowest penalty score in all three phases in EACH CLASS plus the NEXT LOWEST penalty score will be added together to give the team total.
- 5.4. For the WOODEN SPOON, the penalty scores of the DRESSAGE and SHOW JUMPING phases will be added together and the lowest penalty score in each CLASS, plus the NEXT LOWEST score in these phases will be added together to make the team total. A team eliminated after the CROSS COUNTRY by vetting out may compete in the WOODEN SPOON, but the horses vetted out may not continue to compete.
